FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 4, 2011

THE ANNUAL YOUTH EGG HUNT RETURNS
TO THE CITY OF LA QUINTA ON SATURDAY, APRIL 23rd
*Kids are invited to hunt for treats and meet the Easter Bunny!

La Quinta, CA - The City of La Quinta along with Windermere Real Estate and the President Gerald R. Ford Boys and Girls Club of La Quinta are pleased to announce that the Annual Youth Egg Hunt will return on Saturday, April 23rd at 9 am. Parents are invited to bring their kids to this free celebration at La Quinta Park. Arrive early as this event is popular!

The Easter Bunny will return to La Quinta Park leaving more treats than ever! All ages will enjoy this year's activities which include a chalk drawing contest, jump houses, carnival games, and live musical performances. Kids should bring their Easter baskets to collect the toys, goodies, and surprises that will be scattered over the grass (sorry parents, this hunt is for the kids). Be on the lookout as word has it the Easter Bunny will even be in attendance.

La Quinta Park is located at the corner of Westward Ho and Adams St., across from La Quinta High School.

For more information about the Annual Youth Egg Hunt call (760) 777-7090 or visit www.la-quinta.org.
